Performance Review

Paul Wright • Software Engineering Manager

Submitted 2026-03-02

Rationale for the performance rating Jonathan received.

Congratulations on receiving a Consistently Met Expectations rating for 2025. We have high expectations of Engineering Managers and you were able to support your team and meet them.

In 2025 your team met more than half of 50/50 metrics goals and major milestones consistently. Notably, they delivered key results on bioauth and credentials manager despite XFN gaps, strategy changes, and release headwinds.

You supported the larger organization by representing CoreUX in Shiproom the majority of the year.

You also sought out and proactively acted on feedback.

What impact did Jonathan achieve in 2025? Include impact achieved, progress against business goals, and significant contributions to how we work at Meta, which includes AI-driven impact, smart risk-taking and effective teamwork.

  - Shipped on-time
    - X-Device-Passkeys(browser)(experiment v81;shipping v85)
      - led to relative +2.7% VR 1D TS & +2.7% TS compared to holdout, estimated ~0.0656% improvement to topline VR engagement
      - MPR 3.5\(A-\)
    - X-Device-QR-Code(browser)(v83 experiment)

What are 1-3 strengths Jonathan demonstrated?

Use the Career Expectations Explorer to help you describe how well their actions align with expectations or skills.

Willing and eager to jump in and solve problems, identifies and takes ownership of hard problems.

Up-leveled communication across projects on the team.

Pushes team to take on ambitious goals.

How can Jonathan increase their impact? Describe 1-3 areas they can grow or improve.

Use the Career Expectations Explorer to help you describe growth or improvement areas.

Continually evaluate structure and process and adapt without thrashing the team as much and creating higher throughput systems. Control is less important than throughput (with quality).

Make sure you have the team buy in, especially for projects and estimates but for changing team processes and culture as well. Have the influencers on the team bought in and leading the effort.

Pay attention to partnerships, with XFN and particularly senior eng. People should feel that you can help make them successful and come to you for help.

Defend your team's execution and delivery, balancing more ambitious longterm goals with the very next milestone.

In your larger org efforts continue to focus on impact and outcomes. Be careful of taking on many things that are hard to make progress on (e.g. leaks prevention, templates, processes) and give more time to the ones that lead to material wins.
